ARTICLE 1 - PREAMBLE

- 1.1 This Agreement is made and entered into by and between the CITY OF SUNNYSIDE, WASHINGTON, hereinafter called the "City," and TEAMSTERS LOCAL No. 760, hereinafter referred to as the "Union," for the purpose of fixing the scale of wages, schedule of hours, and working conditions affecting the bargaining unit employees.

ARTICLE 2 - RECOGNITION AND BARGAINING UNIT

- 2.1 The City recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all Regular Full-Time and Regular Part-Time and Probationary Office-Clerical employees of the City of Sunnyside. The City Manager, Human Resources Personnel, Public Works Director, Public Works Superintendent, Seasonal employees, Elected Officials, Administrative Personnel (e.g. City Clerk, etc.), Confidential Employees and all other Supervisors, Confidential employees, and all employees currently covered as part of an existing bargaining unit shall be excluded.

ARTICLE 3 - UNION SECURITY AND DUES CHECK-OFF

- 3.1 It shall be a condition of employment that all employees of the City covered by this Agreement shall, on or before the thirtieth (30th) calendar day following the beginning of such employment, or the execution date of this Agreement, whichever is later, join the Union; or agree to pay to the Union the sum equal to the regular initiation fee and regular monthly dues commencing on or before the thirtieth (30th) calendar day following the beginning of such employment, or the execution date of this Agreement, whichever is later.
- 3.1.1 If an employee covered by this Agreement has an objection or is forbidden, based upon bona fide religious tenet or teaching of a church or religion to which he belongs, such employee shall pay an amount of money equivalent to the regular Union initiation fees and regular union dues to a non-religious charity, or to another charitable organization mutually agreed upon by the employee affected and the bargaining representative to which such employee would otherwise pay the regular fees and monthly dues. Should an employee exercise this option, the Union and the employee may enter into an agreement to provide for a division of the costs incurred, should the employee request the Union's assistance in pursuing a grievance on the employee's behalf.
- 3.1.2 The Union agrees to represent all employees within the bargaining unit without regard to Union membership.

- 3.2 When an employee fails to fulfill the obligation as set forth in Section 3.1 or 3.1.1, the Union shall provide the employee and the City with thirty (30) calendar days' notification of the Union's intent to initiate discharge action and during this period the employee may make restitution in the amount which is overdue. If an employee has not fulfilled the Union membership obligation and/or other provisions as described in Section 3.1 or 3.1.1 by the end of the applicable discharge notification period, the Union may thereafter notify the City in writing, with a copy to the affected employee, of such employee's failure to abide by Section 3.1 or 3.1.1. In this written notice, the Union may specifically request discharge of the employee for failure to abide by the terms of the Labor Agreement between the City and the Union.
- 3.3 When the City hires a new employee the City shall, within fourteen (14) calendar days of the date of employment, notify the Union in writing, giving the name, social security number, hire date, address and classification of the employee hired.
- 3.4 When provided a "Voluntary Check-off" authorization, in the form furnished by the Union and signed by the employee, the City agrees to deduct from that employee's pay, the Union's regular initiation fee, and/or dues, as prescribed in the "Voluntary Check-off" form. The full amount of monies so deducted by the City shall be promptly forwarded to the Union by check or ACH, along with an alphabetized list showing names and amounts deducted from each employee.

In no event shall a temporary employee be employed for longer than eight (8) consecutive months unless extended for a longer period by mutual agreement of the City and the Union. A temporary employee is not a member of the bargaining unit and is not entitled to any of the benefits covered by this Agreement.

A list of employees arranged in the order of their seniority shall be given to the Union annually.

- 6.4 Layoff - Recall: The Employer has the right to determine when a layoff becomes necessary. In reducing the personnel because of lack of work, lack of funds, budget restraints or reorganization or other legitimate reason, the last employee hired within a job classification shall be the first (1st) laid off; on returning employees to work, the last employee laid off within a job classification shall be the first (1st) rehired, provided the employee has the qualifications, skills, abilities, experience and education to perform all the duties of the position and has maintained the necessary certifications. A more senior employee proposed for layoff has right to bump down a more junior employee in a lower classification in which they have served and are qualified for the position based on the current job description.
- 6.5 In the event of a layoff, the City agrees to give the employees a minimum of ten (10) working days notice and each employee shall give the City at least ten (10) working days notice prior to leaving City employment. This shall not apply to discharges carried out under Article 21.

In the event that a reduction in force appears to be necessary, the City will notify the Union in writing. The parties agree to meet to discuss and explore options and alternatives to the reduction in force prior to it becoming effective in an effort to avert such action.

7.3 Application forms for the open position(s) will be available at the City's personnel office and the opening(s) will remain posted for a period of not less than five (5) working days. Employees wishing to make application for the open position must do so within such period.

7.4 The applicant who is most qualified for the position advertised by virtue of training, experience, performance, ability, reliability, job attendance, dependability, and physical fitness shall fill the open position. Exception: The City may grant an extension to this six (6) month probation period. Should the employee fail to satisfactorily perform the duties of his new position as required by the City, or should he elect to return to his former position, he must do so without exception within the six (6) month probation period, or extension thereof, and he shall be reinstated to his former position or a comparable position unless he is discharged for just cause.

It is the employee's responsibility to not request an accrual of any hours which might put his compensatory time balance over the eighty (80) hour maximum at any time during the year. Subject to prior approval by the City, the employees will arrange to take their compensatory time off so as to not put an excessive burden on their fellow workers or in such way as to interfere with the operations of the City. It is the City's position to allow the accrual of compensatory time to provide the employees with additional leave time throughout the year in which the time is accrued. Therefore, any accrued Compensatory Time remaining on the books at the end of November of any given year will be paid with the first pay period in December. The time will be paid at the rate of the employee's straight time hourly rate since the compensatory time was accrued at one and one-half (1-1/2) times the number of hours worked. By mutual agreement with the Employer, an employee may work an alternate work schedule and take an equivalent amount of compensatory time off within the same work week.

Such exchange of time shall not, by itself, entitle the employee to overtime.

- 14.4 Any extra services required on Friday, Saturday, or Sunday or over the regular assigned work week shall be paid for at time and one-half (1-1/2) the employee's regular hourly rate or the employee may accrue the equivalent hours at the rate of time and one-half (1-1/2) to be taken as compensatory time.
- 14.5 Call out - Call back: Each call out or call back ordered by an employee's supervisor shall be paid for actual time worked at the rate of time and one-half (1-1/2) his hourly rate or for one (1) hour straight time at his regular hourly rate, whichever is the greater amount.
- 14.6 Rest Periods: All employees shall be granted a fifteen (15) minute rest break approximately half-way through the first half (1/2) of their shift and a fifteen (15) minute rest break approximately half-way through the second half (1/2) of their shift. Such breaks shall be taken without loss of pay and the employee shall not be required to make up such time. The fifteen (15) minutes allowed for each break shall include shutdown and startup time.

- 22.1 Policy: The parties recognize that the most effective accomplishment of the work of the City requires prompt consideration and equitable adjustments of the employee's grievances. It is the desire of the parties to adjust grievances informally whenever possible, and both supervisors and employees are expected to make every effort to resolve problems as they arise. However, it is recognized that there may be grievances which can be resolved only after a formal review. Accordingly, the following procedure is hereby established in order that grievances of employees covered by this Agreement may be resolved as fairly and expeditiously as possible.
- 22.2 "Grievance" as used herein shall mean any dispute involving the interpretation or application of the provisions of this Agreement.

- 22.3 STEP 1: An employee having a concern which he feels could be a grievance shall bring up the matter within fourteen (14) calendar days of the concern giving rise to the grievance, or fourteen (14) calendar days such matter became known to the employee, or it shall be deemed waived. The employee is to first (1st) discuss the matter with his immediate supervisor, to provide an opportunity for clarification and/or appropriate adjustment, consistent with the terms of this Agreement. The employee shall have the option of being accompanied by his Union representative if he feels it is necessary.
- 22.4 STEP 2: If it is determined a grievance does exist and it is not resolved in Step 1, within fourteen (14) calendar days, the grievance shall be reduced to writing and an attempt will be made to resolve the grievance with the Department Head or his designee, the Union and the grievant(s), within fourteen (14) calendar days of the conclusion of Step 1. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved within an additional fourteen (14) calendar days, then,
- 22.5 STEP 3: The grievance shall be referred to a committee consisting of four (4) members, of which two (2) are appointed by the City and two (2) appointed by the Union. Such committee members will not have first-hand knowledge or information of the grievance or dispute, but shall have a basic understanding of the operation, and shall attempt to reach a majority decision, based on the facts and evidence presented to them, by the City and Union designees (who shall not serve as committee members). If such committee fails to reach a majority decision on such dispute or grievance submitted to it within fourteen (14) calendar days, such dispute or grievance may be moved to Step 4 in an attempt to resolve. Nothing shall preclude either party the right to submit the dispute or grievance to arbitration after this Step.
- 22.6 STEP 4: An attempt will be made to resolve the grievance with the City Manager, the Union and the grievant(s) within fourteen (14) calendar days of the conclusion of Step 3. If the grievance is not satisfactorily resolved within an additional twenty-one (21) calendar days, then, either party shall have the right to submit the dispute or grievance to arbitration.
- 22.7 STEP 5: If the matter is submitted to arbitration, the City and the Union may select an impartial arbitrator within fourteen (14) calendar days after the agreement is made to arbitrate. If the parties fail to agree within this period upon an arbitrator who is able and willing to serve, either party may, within seven (7) calendar days thereafter request the Public Employees Relations Commission to submit a list of seven (7) disinterested persons who are qualified and willing to act as an impartial arbitrator. From that list, within seven (7) calendar days after its receipt, the parties shall flip a coin to determine who shall strike the first (1st) name, then each will alternately strike one of the names submitted until only one (1) name remains. The person whose name remains shall be selected as the sole arbitrator.
- 22.8 The arbitrator shall commence hearings within a reasonable period of time after his selection, and shall render his award in writing within thirty (30) calendar days. The award of the arbitrator, together with his written findings and conclusions shall be final and binding upon the parties to this Agreement, and upon the complaining employee or employees, if any. The Arbitrator is not vested with the power to change this Agreement in any of its parts.
- 22.9 The arbitrator's fees and expenses, the cost of any hearing room, shall be borne equally by the City and the Union. All other costs and expenses shall be borne by the party incurring them.

- 22.10 The City and the Union agree to comply with the time limitations set forth above and either party shall have the right to insist that the time limitations be complied with, provided, however, said time limitations may be waived by mutual agreement, but in no event shall failure to comply with the above time limits deprive the arbitrator of authority to decide the grievance.

ARTICLE 1B - GENERAL PROVISIONS

1.B.1 Availability of Leave: Subject to the conditions and privileges below, an eligible employee shall be entitled to a total of twelve (12) work weeks of leave during any twelve (12) month period for one or more of the following:

- 1.B.1.1 Because of the birth of a son or daughter of the employee and in order to care for such son or daughter.
- 1.B.1.2 Because of the placement of a son or daughter with the employee for adoption or foster care.
- 1.B.1.3 In order to care for the spouse or a son, daughter, or parent of the employee, if such spouse, son, daughter, or parent has a serious health condition.
- 1.B.1.4 Because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the position of such employee.

1.B.2 Definition of Certain Terms

- 1.B.2.1 "Eligible Employee" means an employee who has been employed (a) for at least twelve (12) months by the employer, and (b) for at least 1,250 hours of service with such employer during the previous twelve (12) month period.
- 1.B.2.2 "Serious Health Condition" means an illness, injury, impairment, or physical or mental condition that involves (a) in-patient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility; or (b) continuing treatment by a health-care provider.
- 1.B.2.3 "Health-care Provider" means (a) a doctor of medicine or osteopathy, who is authorized to practice medicine or surgery (as appropriate) by the state in which the doctor practices; or (b) any other person determined by the U. S. Secretary of Labor to be capable of providing health-care services.
- 1.B.2.4 "Son or Daughter" means a biological, adopted, or foster child, a stepchild, a legal ward, or a child of a person standing in loco parentis, who is (a) under eighteen (18) years of age; or (b) eighteen (18) years of age or older and incapable of self-care because of a mental or physical disability.
- 1.B.2.5 "Spouse" means a husband or wife, as the case may be.

1.B.3 Birth or Placement of Child - Computation of Leave

The entitlement to leave because of the birth of a son or daughter of the employee, in order to care for such son or daughter, or because of the placement of a son or daughter with the employee for adoption or foster care, shall expire at the end of the twelve (12)-month period beginning on the date of such birth or placement.

1.B.4 Leave Taken Intermittently or on a Reduced-leave Schedule:

- 1.B.4.1 General Provisions: Leave taken because of the birth of a son or daughter of the employee, in order to care for such son or daughter; or, because of the placement of a son or daughter with the employee for adoption or foster care, shall not be taken by an employee intermittently or on a reduced-leave schedule unless the employee and the employer agree otherwise. Leave under paragraphs (3) or (4) of Subsection A above may be taken intermittently or on a reduced-leave schedule when medically necessary, and the employer determines that such intermittent or reduced-leave schedule will not unduly disrupt the operations of the employer. The taking of leave intermittently or on a reduced-leave schedule pursuant to this paragraph shall not result in a reduction of the total amount of leave to which the employee is entitled beyond the amount of leave actually taken.
- 1.B.4.2 Temporary Transfer: If an employee requests intermittent leave, or leave on a reduced-leave schedule, but such leave is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the employer may require such employee to transfer temporarily to an available alternative position offered by the employer for which the employee is qualified and that (a) has equivalent pay and benefits; and (b) better accommodates recurring periods of leave than the regular employment position of the employee.
- 1.B.5 Required Use of Accrued Paid Leave: An employee taking family and/or medical leave shall be required to substitute and first use accrued paid vacation leave, sick leave, compensatory time, emergency leave, and any other accrued paid personal leave, for leave provided under this policy. Family and/or medical leave taken in excess of the employee's accrued paid vacation leave, sick leave, compensatory time, emergency leave, and any other accrued paid personal leave, shall be without compensation.
- 1.B.6 Both Spouses Employed by the City: In any case in which a husband and wife entitled to family and/or medical leave are employed by the City of Sunnyside, the aggregate number of work weeks of leave to which both may be entitled shall be limited to twelve (12) work weeks during any twelve (12)-month period, if such leave is taken because of the birth or placement of a son or daughter, or in order to care for a sick parent.

ARTICLE 2B - PROCEDURES

2.B.1 Foreseeable Leave

- 2.B.1.1 Requirement of Notice: In any case in which the necessity for leave is foreseeable based on an expected birth or placement of a son or daughter, the employee shall provide the employer with not less than thirty (30) days' notice, before the date the leave is to begin, of the employee's intention to take leave under such subparagraph, except that if the date of the birth or placement requires leave to begin in less than thirty (30) days, the employee shall provide such notice as is practicable.
- 2.B.2.2 Duties of Employee: In any case in which the necessity for leave (a) in order to care for the spouse or a son, daughter, or parent of the employee, if such spouse, son, daughter, or parent has a serious health condition; or (b) because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the position of such employee, is foreseeable based on planned medical treatment, the employee:

- (a) Shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to disrupt unduly the operations of the employer, subject to the approval of the health-care provider of the employee or the health-care provider of the son, daughter, spouse, or parent of the employee, as appropriate; and
- (b) Shall provide the employer with not less than thirty (30) days' notice, before the date the leave is to begin, of the employee's intention to take leave under such subparagraph, except that if the date of the treatment requires leave to begin in less than thirty (30) days, the employee shall provide such notice as is practicable.

2.B.2 Certification:

2.B.2.1 A request for leave (a) in order to care for the spouse, or a son, daughter, or parent, of the employee, if such spouse, son, daughter, or parent has a serious health condition, or (b) because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the position of such employee, shall be supported by a certification issued by the health-care provider of the eligible employee or of the son, daughter, spouse, or parent of the employee, as appropriate. The employee shall provide, in a timely manner, a copy of such certification to the employer.

2.B.2.2 Sufficient Certification: Certification provided above shall be sufficient if it states:

- (a) The date on which the serious health condition commenced;
- (b) The probable duration of the condition;
- (c) The appropriate medical facts within the knowledge of the health-care provider regarding the condition;
- (d) A statement that the eligible employee is needed to care for the son, daughter, spouse, or parent and an estimate of the amount of time that such employee is needed to care for the son, daughter, spouse, or parent; or, a statement that the employee is unable to perform the functions of the position of the employee, as appropriate;
- (e) In the case of certification for intermittent leave, or leave on a reduced-leave schedule for planned medical treatment, the dates on which such treatment is expected to be given and the duration of such treatment;
- (f) In the case of certification for intermittent leave, or leave on a reduced-leave schedule, a statement of the medical necessity for the intermittent leave or leave on a reduced-leave schedule and the expected duration of the intermittent leave or reduced-leave schedule.

2.B.3 Second Opinion: In any case deemed appropriate by the employer, the employer may require, at the expense of the employer, that the eligible employee obtain the opinion of a second health-care provider designated or approved by the employer.

2.B.4 Resolution of Conflicting Opinions:

- (a) In General. In any case in which the second opinion described above differs from the opinion in the original certification, the employer may require, at the expense of the employer, that the employee obtain the opinion of a third health-care provider designated or approved jointly by the employer and the employee.

- (b) Finality. The opinion of the third health-care provider concerning the information certified shall be considered to be final and shall be binding upon the employer and the employee.

2.B.5 Subsequent Recertification: The employer may require that the eligible employee obtain subsequent recertifications on a reasonable basis.

ARTICLE 3.B - EMPLOYMENT AND BENEFITS PROTECTION

3.B.1 Restoration to Position:

3.B.1.1 In General. Except as provided below, any eligible employee who takes family and/or family medical leave under this section for the intended purpose of the leave, shall be entitled, on return from such leave:

- (a) To be restored by the employer to the position of employment held by the employee when the leave commenced; or
- (b) To be restored to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, or other terms and conditions of employment.

3.B.2 Loss of Benefits: The taking of leave under this policy and procedure shall not result in the loss of any employment benefit accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced.

3.B.3 Nothing in this section shall be construed to entitle any restored employee to: (a) the accrual of any seniority or employment benefits during any period of leave; or (b) any right, benefit, or position of employment other than any right, benefit, or position to which the employee would have been entitled had the employee not taken the leave.

3.B.4 Certification: As a condition of restoration under Subparagraph (A) above, for an employee who has taken leave because of serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the position of such employee, such employee shall receive certification from the health-care provider of the employee that the employee is able to resume work.

3.B.5 Maintenance of Health Benefits:

3.B.5.1 Coverage: Except as provided in Subparagraph 2 below, during any period that an eligible employee takes family and/or medical leave, the employer will maintain existing health insurance coverage, as available, for the duration of such leave at the level and under the conditions coverage would have been provided if the employee had continued in employment continuously for the duration of such leave.

3.B.5.2 Failure to Return from Leave: The employer may recover the premium the employer paid for maintaining coverage for the employee under such health insurance plan during any period of unpaid family and/or medical leave if:

- (a) The employee fails to return from leave after the period of leave to which the employee is entitled has expired; and

- (b) The employee fails to return to work for a reason other than:
 - (i) The continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition that entitles the employee to leave (a) in order to care for the spouse, or a son, daughter, or parent of the employee, or (b) because of a serious health condition that makes the employee unable to perform the functions of the position of such employee; or
 - (ii) Other circumstances beyond the control of the employee.
